Exam Pattern GOETHE Certificate-Al

The Goethe Certificate A1 assesses fundamental language proficiency. This examination aligns with the introductory level (A1) on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, which comprises six competency levels. By passing this assessment, candidates demonstrate their ability to engage in basic German communication. They exhibit competence in understanding, speaking, and writing in the German language. The examination encompasses an individual written test that includes listening, reading, and writing components, as well as a group oral examination.

The Goethe-Institut and telc-GmbH collaboratively developed this examination.
